Terms of Purchase for Your Energy Systems (ReadiSorb) Products Directly Through Your Energy Systems, LLC or Through Any Authorized Distributors

Your Energy Systems, LLC (YES) ReadiSorb line of products are offered at wholesale pricing only to individuals identified as qualified healthcare practitioners and some pharmacies. Potential health care practitioners are asked to provide a copy of their practitioner's state license, professional degree certificate, or diploma to our office in order to establish an account.

YES has an Internet Policy in place which applies to all internet resellers, who resell YES products to end users through the internet. YES does not permit or authorize selling our products through third party websites such as Amazon.com, Ebay, or others. YES reserves the right to terminate the account of any reseller using such sites directly, or found to be providing product to other persons or entities that then distribute YES products on Amazon.com, Ebay or other third party websites.

YES requires that all resellers of YES products adhere to Minimum Advertised Pricing (MAPS). YES products must check-out at or above the Suggested Retail Price, found below. YES products are not to be displayed in any internet advertising or marketing without prior consent from YES. These include but are not limited to websites, banner advertisements, AdWords, sponsored searches, etc.

YES reserves the right not to sell or supply our products to any reseller that is affiliated with a website that violates our Internet Policies.
